

2007 Workshop Agenda

IHS Tribal Injury Prevention Cooperative Agreements Program (TIPCAP) &

CDC Tribal Motor Vehicle Injury Prevention Program (MVIPP)

March 27-28, 2007 – Chicago, IL

Tuesday, March 27, 2007 – Boulevard A/B Room
1:30 pm	Welcome/Opening Invocation, Review of Agenda, and Introductions
2:30 pm	Keynote Speaker, Dr. Rose-Alma J. McDonald (Katenies) , Katenies Research and Management Services, Akwesasne Mohawk Territory. Dr. McDonald will discuss indigenous IP initiatives within the U.S., Canada, Australia, and New Zealand.
3:15 pm	Break
3:30 pm	TIPCAP 2000-2005 Summary UNC will provide a brief summary of Lessons Learned and Recommendations from the 2000-2005 TIPCAP funding cycle.
4:00 pm	Program Logic Models: Roadmaps for Planning, Implementation, and Evaluation. UNC will provide an overview of the value of 'logic models' to guide program planning. They will describe steps to develop a logic model and the importance of having goals/objectives that are specific/measurable and include evaluation measures.
5:15 pm	End of Day One
6:15 pm	Depart Lobby for Group Dinner Blackie's Chicago (755 South Clark Street; at Clark and Polk)
Wednesday, March 28, 2007 – Boulevard A/B Room
8:00 am	Networking Session Participants will gather for early-morning networking. Note: beverages will not be provided.
8:30 am	Panel Presentation on Program Successes Representatives from eight sites (TIPCAP and MVIPP) will share Program Successes.
10:15 am	Break
10:30 am	Individual Site Work Session Using information and tools provided in the Logic Model and Program Successes sessions, Coordinators (working alone or with their Project Officers) will begin planning their Year III (TIPCAP)/Year IV (MVIPP) workplans.
11:30 am	National Tribal Steering Committee for Injury Prevention Presentation Representatives from the National Tribal Steering Committee for Injury Prevention will share information about the committee, including its membership and purpose.
12:00 pm	Lunch (on your own)
1:15 pm	Poster Presentation/Networking Session Workshop participants will view and discuss TIPCAP/MVIPP project poster presentations.
2:15 pm	Break
2:30 pm	Administrative Issues Session Nancy Bill/David Wallace will answer questions related to administrative issues. Rob Morones will describe changes to the IHS Injury Prevention Program website.
3:45 pm	Concurrent Sessions UNC will review the importance of progress reporting (for Coordinators). Nancy Bill/David Wallace will discuss program management issues (with Project Officers).
4:15 pm	Closing & Collect Workshop Evaluation Forms
4:30 pm	End of Day Two/Workshop